Festival of Nations

Early Spring in the Smokies

April 19-22, 2010

4 days ~ 3 nights

Travel south to the Great Smoky Mountains where the highlight of the trip is the Annual Festival of Nations at Dollywood. This captivating sight features some of the world's best entertainment, plus art, dancing, music and food. Past features have included Le Grand Cirque and the show Imagine; the Czech Pilsen Brass Band a youth ensemble; Keona, a unique act from Switzerland; Atahualpa from Ecuador offering South American traditional songs and dance; Royal Stilt walkers of Belgium performing music and dance on stilts...and much more...a truly international experience. The 2010 schedule will be announced in January.

Surrounded by the beautiful Smoky Mountains, your host hotel is the incredible Inn at Christmas Place. Reminiscent of the architecture of a mountain village in the European Alps it features year round Christmas décor and it is located across from the South's largest Christmas village, The Incredible Christmas Place. But that's not all, you'll enjoy a guided tour of the Smoky Mountain National park, free time in Gatlinburg, plenty of down-home dining and a wide variety of entertainment.

TRAVEL ITINERARYDay 1: Indianapolis/ Pigeon Forge

Enjoy the early signs of spring as you travel south to the Smoky Mountains. After checking into the incredible Inn at Christmas Place you will be dazzled by their year-round Christmas décor. This evening, enjoy a delicious served dinner at Connor's followed by Country Tonite, the hottest, foot stompin', knee slappin' country show in the USA! Inn at Christmas Place, Pigeon Forge, TN (CB, D)

Day 2: Pigeon Forge / Gatlinburg

Jump start your morning with a variety show featuring Patty Waszak, a high energy, heart warming variety show featuring a wide variety of music including big band favorites, polkas, 50s and 60s rock 'n' roll, patriotic songs and originals. This one woman show will amaze you, playing 30 different musical instruments. Then join our local guide for a tour of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Encompassing over 800 square miles, it is one of the most pristine natural areas in the East. Bring your camera to capture panoramic views, tumbling mountain streams, weathered historic buildings, and mature hardwood forests stretching to the horizon. After your tour, enjoy free time at your hotel and the nearby Incredible Christmas Place, the South's largest Christmas village, or in town browsing Gatlinburg's shops and attractions. We rendezvous again for the Hoot N' Holler Dinner Show. Inn at Christmas Place, Pigeon Forge, TN (B, L, D)

Day 3: Pigeon Forge

Today prepare to be captivated by the Festival of Nations at Dollywood. This international event showcases performers from around the world, as well as highlighting many different cultures. The festival features some of the world's best entertainment, plus art, dancing, music and food. Take in the festival at your own pace. Rejoin your group for a four-course feast with friendly rivalry between the North and South at the Dixie Stampede dinner show. Inn at Christmas Place, Pigeon Forge, TN (B, D)

Day 4: Pigeon Forge / Travel Home

Before returning home enjoy a bountiful breakfast and the harmonious sounds of the legendary Blackwood Brothers, winners of 9 Grammy Awards and Hall of Fame. Then board your coach for the return trip where you can share the wide array of experiences you enjoyed. (B)

Cancellation policy: if insurance is not purchased, cancellation charges are: 61 days and earlier: full refund; 60-22 days before departure: $100; 21 and less days prior to departure: no refund.
